

President's Volunteer Service Award

In 2003, the President's Council on Service and Civic Participation created the President's Volunteer Service Award program as a way to thank and honor Americans who, by their demonstrated commitment and example, inspire others to engage in volunteer service.

About the Award

The President's Volunteer Service Award recognizes individuals, families, and groups that have achieved a certain standard – measured by the number of hours served over a 12-month period or cumulative hours earned over the course of a lifetime.

Award recipients receive:

- An official President's Volunteer Service Award pin.
- A personalized certificate of achievement. .
