Girl Scouting is at its best when families take part. Without support, it is difficult for a troop to exist. Please select your preferences for troop involvement below (check all that apply):

Co-Leader: plan and assist leaders with all troop functions	Transportation: for troop activities (ex: field trips)	Communications: create a phone tree, develop a newsletter, or webpage
Troop Secretary: make copies, fill out forms, filing/mailing, update calendar	Chaperone: for troop activities outside the traditional meeting place	Event Planner: coordinate parties and ceremonies for the troop
Parent Helper: can attend troop meetings regularly to help where needed	Troop Treasurer: collect and deposit troop money (dues/fees), manage the troop finances	Troop Aide: share a skill or hobby with the troop
Record Keeper: maintain individual girl and patch/badge records	Money-Earning: lead approved money-earning activities, including the council sponsored product sales	First Aider: obtain current CPR and First Aid certification and attend troop meetings and activities
Storage: store all supplies (crafts or other equipment)	Snack: provide occasional refreshments for meetings	Troop Assistant: help with shopping or other errands

I have the following skills and interests that I would like to share with the troop (Please select all that apply):
