

Proclamation -I Wear The Pin Of A Girl Scout.

Loretta Graham

I wear the pin of a Girl Scout, I try to live the laws
I often said the Promise, when life felt only flaws
But it's not the pin, nor the Promise, nor just the laws I lived
That cause me to love Girl scouting it's the feeling that Girl Scouts give.

You have to live it, to know it, when the sun is sunken down low
You must sing with other Girl Scouts around the campfire's glow
You must plan a cookout with them and have it spoiled by the rain
Sing instead of crying and make the plan again

You must hike for many miles under a clear blue sky
And sleep in the open country and watch the stars go by
There are no words to express it. It cannot be told in a song
You must experience it. It won't take very long

It's brought out when you are singing as loud as you can sing
And again in a peaceful silence, when the flag has taken wings
Then when you salute Old Glory, you knew that you belong
For Taps cannot end this feeling, For Girl Scouts are young and strong

You will want to meet tomorrow in hopes that you can give
And live to pass on the feeling, only Girl Scouting can give!!
