

Welcome, Traveler! This Route 66 Passport invites Girl Scouts to explore the historic Mother Road from St. Louis to Chicago, discovering how travel, innovation, and community helped shape the United States over 250 years. Girls may complete this passport individually, with a troop, or with family. Visit sites, complete challenges, and collect stamps or signatures along the way.

How to Earn the Patch | Choose the level that fits your journey:

Daisy Explorer – Visit at least 3 stops

Brownie Traveler – Visit at least 5 stops

Junior Historian – Visit at least 9 stops + reflection

Cadette Rover - Visit at least 11 stops + reflection

Senior Sightseer - Visit at least 14 stops + reflection

Ambassador Voyager – Visit at least 14 stops
+ reflection + service or preservation project

Passport Stops (South to North)

1. Chain of Rocks Bridge – Madison County

Why it matters: Iconic Route 66 bridge and engineering landmark

Date Visited: _____ Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

2. Old Chain of Rocks Road – Granite City Area

Why it matters: Original Route 66 alignment

Date Visited: _____ Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

3. World's Largest Catsup Bottle – Collinsville

Why it matters: Classic roadside attraction and marketing icon

Date Visited: _____ Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

4. Collinsville Route 66 Corridor

Why it matters: Preserved Route 66 streetscape

Date Visited: _____ Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

5. West End Service Station – Edwardsville

Why it matters: Early automobile service station

Date Visited: _____ Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

6. Staunton Historic Route 66 Downtown

Why it matters: Small-town Route 66 architecture and commerce

Date Visited: _____ Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

7. Henry's Rabbit Ranch - Staunton

Why it matters: Modern preservation of Route 66 culture

Date Visited: _____ Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

8. Mount Olive Route 66 Pavement Segments

Why it matters: Original road construction and materials

Date Visited: _____ Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

9. Union Miners Cemetery - Near Mount Olive

Why it matters: Labor history and Mother Jones memorial

Date Visited: _____ Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

10. Litchfield Route 66 Museum

Why it matters: Travel, tourism, and migration history

Date Visited: _____ Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

11. Ariston Café – Litchfield

Why it matters: One of the oldest Route 66 restaurants

Date Visited: _____

Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

12. Old Route 66 Alignment – Divernon/Glenarm

Why it matters: Experience early highway travel

Date Visited: _____

Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

13. Springfield Route 66 Corridor

Why it matters: Capital city connection and government travel

Date Visited: _____

Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

14. Cozy Dog Drive In – Springfield

Why it matters: Roadside food innovation

Date Visited: _____

Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

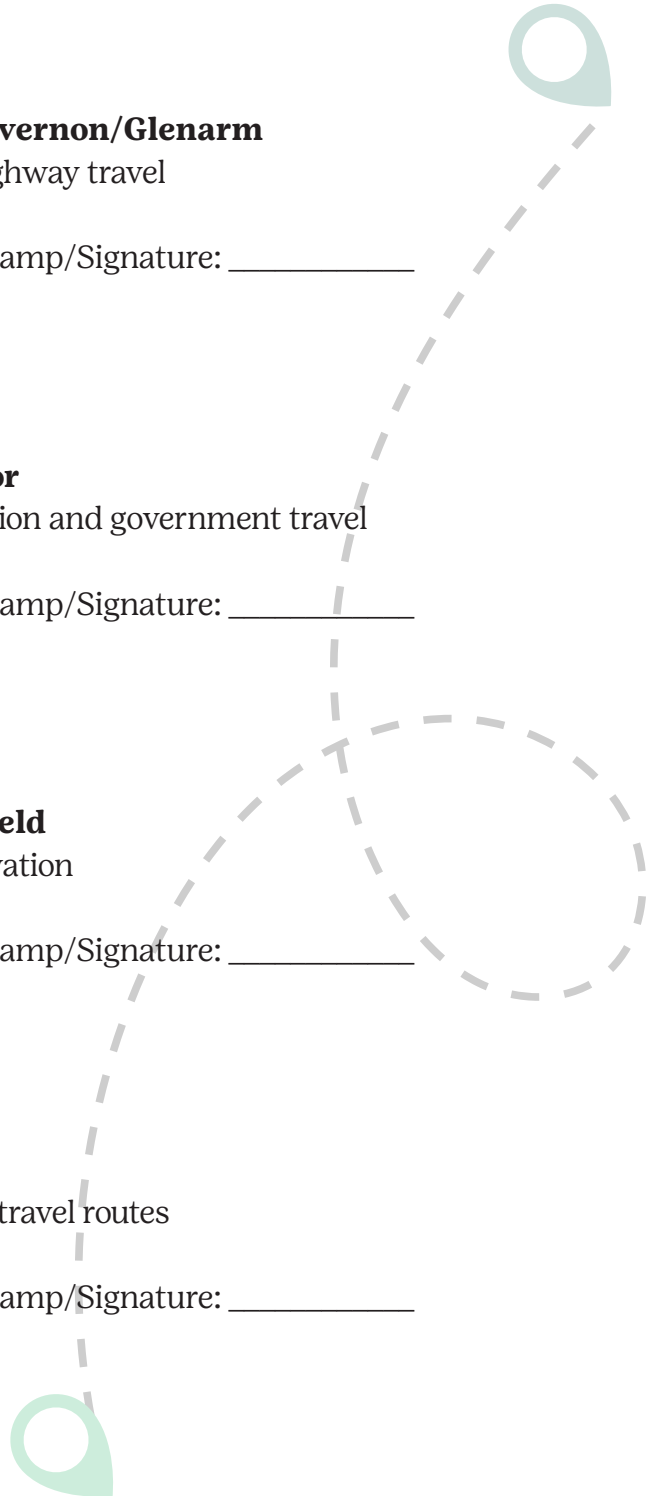

15. Lincoln Route 66 Downtown

Why it matters: Civic life shaped by travel routes

Date Visited: _____

Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

16. Mill Museum on Route 66 – Lincoln

Why it matters: Community life along the Mother Road

Date Visited: _____ Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

17. Pontiac Route 66 Hall of Fame & Museum

Why it matters: Comprehensive Route 66 history

Date Visited: _____ Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

18. Pontiac Route 66 Murals

Why it matters: Public art and storytelling

Date Visited: _____ Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

19. Joliet Route 66 Corridor

Why it matters: Industrial and transportation crossroads

Date Visited: _____ Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

20. Route 66 Begin Sign – Chicago

Why it matters: Official eastern terminus of Route 66

Date Visited: _____ Stamp/Signature: _____

Reflection or Fun Fact:

